■ Major Amendments

○ Reason for Amendments

- At the request of the internal customers

○ Amendments

- Regarding the minimum requirements of tank testing for “fuel oil tank, lubrication tank and fresh water tank” at Special Survey, the followings are to be applied.

- 1) These requirements apply to tanks of integral (structural) type
- 2) Fuel oil tanks which do not form part of the ship’s structures are to be examined in accordance with 502. 2. (9), (c).
 - Internal and external examination and, if considered necessary by the Surveyor, tank testing are to be carried out.
 - At the Special Survey No. 1, internal examination of the tanks may be dispensed with, provided they are found satisfactory in external examination etc.
