

The retention period of test certificates

■ Summary of main amendments

Related Rules/Guidance	Effective Date
Part 2 of the Rules	1 July 2019 (The application date for approval of materials and welding)

■ Main amendments

○ Reason

The rules does not specify the retention period of the test certificates. Therefore it needs to provide the retention period of manufacturer's test certificates.

○ Amended Items

The manufacturer is to keep the test certificates more than 10 years from the supply date of products. This is to reflect the relevant Korea legislation.
